To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is in regard to Adam John Kidd and his commitment to rehabilitating large breed dogs from animal shelters.

Adam has adopted 2 dogs from our shelter, "Lucky" and "Beau". Lucky is a German Shepherd / Rottweiler cross, 90 pound male and Beau is a Belgian Shepherd Malinois, 70 pound male. Both dogs were having trouble finding a new home and required a special placement. Beau was especially difficult to place as he had developed aggression issues while at the shelter. When Adam approached us about adopting Beau I didn't hesitate. I knew that he was exactly the type of owner that Beau needed.

I am pleased to learn from Adam that both dogs have greatly improved their social skills and that Beau is now working with the Canadian Search and Disaster Dogs Association as a search and rescue dog.

Adam's dedication to improving the life of his dogs and the fact that he works hard to make them good canine citizens makes him an ideal candidate to adopt any dog. Adam uses positive training methods and has excellent common sense.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions regarding Adam's experiences with the Delta Community Animal Shelter.

Best regards,

Sarah Lowe, Shelter Manager
